

WOODMEN VALLEY
CHAPEL

Our Vision

To launch and strengthen a fleet of Christ-following communities who are compassionately sailing through a turbulent culture toward a deeper amazement of God's grace.

Three Implications of Our Amazement

(Indications of the Amazement we already have, as well as catalysts for deeper amazement.)

Exploring

If we are amazed, we will Explore God's Grace through digging into Scripture and applying it to the story of our personal and corporate journey.

Experiencing

If we are amazed, we will Experience God's Grace through acknowledging our desperation and submitting it to the forgiveness and power of His intervention through Christ, resulting in an authentic relationship with Him as well as others in community, and experiencing daily transformation as a result.

Expressing

If we are amazed, we will Express God's Grace by fully engaging with life, worshiping on an everyday basis, communicating the liberating gospel of grace to others, living lives of compassion within and outside the walls of the church, all in an environment of creativity and calling.

Living a Life of Worship

Welcome to Woodmen!

Woodmen Valley Chapel (WVC) is one church with multiple locations, Rockrimmon and Woodmen Heights. You will notice as you worship with us today, that while we have pastoral and worship arts teams at both locations, our communities are connected via live video-cast in order to worship together as one church body on both sides of the city. Although geographically separated, both communities are expressions of WVC in every way: the vision, the passion and the invitation to live authentically and abundantly through faith in Jesus Christ.

Part 21: Creative Worship, Ephesians 2:10

Why are you? It may sound like a strange question, but it’s not at all irrelevant. It’s a short question, but not a small one. It’s actually an enormous, bottom-line question for each of us, and our answer provides the cadence from which we live our lives.

While attempting to answer the question of the “why” behind our existence and the purpose behind our days, many words come to mind as possible ingredients to the answer’s recipe: Happiness. Relationships. Career. Love. Family. Service. Influence. Power. Pleasure. Success. Freedom. Some people might even include the word “God” in their attempt at an answer. However, very few will bring up the word, “worship.”

Worship. When you hear that word, what comes to mind? Religion? Church? Music? Ritual? Cathedrals? Singing? Liturgy? If the word “worship” is even in our vocabulary and on our radar, too many of us have cordoned off the concept to an out-of-the-way corner of our lives which is both small and ultimately irrelevant. Worship—we sadly reveal by our lifestyles and priorities—is not a big of a part of our lives. And worship—we tragically conclude—is certainly not related to that question of “why” regarding our existence.

However, a closer look at true worship will reveal something quite different. The book of Psalms (which is a book of worship) ends with this acknowledgment of our purpose: Let everything that has breath praise the Lord (Psalm 150:6). If I’m breathing, worshipping our great and gracious God must be central to my life. And it’s not only something I do (or watch others do) in a church service. The worship of God is a whole-life pursuit, involving every page of my story. Whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. (Colossians 3:17)

During this series, we are taking an incredibly important journey together—we are traveling into the realm of worship. It’s a journey that will prove crucial toward who we are becoming as individuals and as a community of Christ’s followers. We are engaging in an exploration of both personal worship on a day-to-day basis as well as corporate worship, when we, as a community, gather to engage in worship together (and the two are intricately connected!).

Revolving around Christ’s defining words that true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth (John 4:23), we have established a definition of biblical worship...

Worship is my active, all-of-life response to the worth of who God is and what He does.

It’s a threefold response:

- Recognizing His Worth (Involves my Mind – “truth”)
- Resonating with His Worth (Involves my Heart – “spirit”)
- Reacting to His Worth (Involves my Body – “worship”)
